

Psalmist's Song

By Yochana

1: Oh Lord my G_d ... my very salvation ... the Yeshua within my heart

2: How doth my soul contemplate thee all the day and through the night

3: My very being burns within at all times delighting in thy tender mercies and miracles

4: My life would fail Lord if not for the hope and desire of finding thy face at the end of days

5: Yet the sons of men have forsaken thee beloved for the powers of Earth that be

6: I shed tears upon my soul knowing in my heart what awaits those who do not fear THEE

7: But more so beloved Lord my soul cries for it is thee who is offended – it is thee who is rejected

8: Thou who has given freely everything from thy great storehouse – even more - thine only Son

9: Break thou oh heart of mine, never ceasing in grief and dismay – for the folly of man doth wax more

10: Bless thee forever in thy righteous anger and heartache - my beloved Lord

11: Were it not for thy charge given to thy servant Lord – would I not be in thy sanctuary all my days?

12: There I would celebrate in the shalom of thy presence – dazzled by thy light – serving thee with joy

Psalmist's Song

13: For now beloved Lord may it please thee greatly that thy servant doth long for thee continually

14: Though stumbling and meandering, thy servant seeks the goodness of thy Torah – so that I may live

15: Bless thee oh Elohim – lift up mine head from the dust - let thy servant kiss the feet of the Son with my sacrifice of obedience and worship

16: Soul to soul doth my beloved Yeshua beckon to thy servant – calling from the realm of Heaven

17: Hark oh ye children of men – will thou be deaf forever? – will thou be blind until thy souls descend to she'ol screaming alive?

18: In that great day when the brilliance of my beloved Lord doth shine upon all creation – exposing what is both chaff and select – shall thou cry out

19: But to the wicked shall my beloved Lord turn the deaf ear to thee foolish children – to the wicked shall my beloved Lord turn a blind eye unto thee

20: Not so for thy servant Lord – who has sought thy covenant – who has thirsted for thee with soul renting all mine days

21: The Lord desires not that the praise and song of mankind for him be silenced forever by the depths of she'ol

22: In that day the Lord shall exalt his lowly servants and give them Salvation – give them shalom – give them the desire of their heart

23: Then forever more shall thy servant Lord lie in thy bosom – thy tabernacle – shining in the light of Yeshua

Psalmist's Song

24: In that day my Lord shall thy servant worship thee alone in the beauty of holiness – exulting in thy Salvation – exulting with thy Salvation – exulting for thy Salvation

25: Oh my Lord ... how doth desire of thee cause thy servant to faint – mine heart to pant

26: Waiting, hoping, agonizing in the joy of selection that thou Lord will come to thy servant

27: Let all creation sing to our Lord – MAKER of HEAVEN and EARTH – for he alone is worthy

28: Yet mine ear Lord hears a different roar – that of man's folly

29: Lord will thou have mercy upon thy servant – chord into my soul that melody from Heaven

30: Let me hear the calling of the Son – Let me taste the frankincense and myrrh upon my lips as I whisper his glorious name so holy and wonderful – PELE YOEZ EL GIBBOR AVI AD SAR SHALOM
