

PSALM 59

Yochana

Deliver me my G_d from those who work evil

Be my protection from this upheaval

For behold they lie in wait for my life

Blood thirsty and fierce, stirring up strife

For no transgression of mine

Me they want because I am thine

They know for what purpose I bring

To call Yeshua back when I sing

Awake my LORD, please come see

This enemy which has come against me

You're my refuge in the day of distress

I will sing O G_d, You are my fortress

They look for food on the evening prowl

Not getting their fill, like dogs they howl

But You O G_d will come and meet me

And let me look on triumph on the enemy

O my strength I will watch for You
There is nothing that the enemy can do
For Your wrath consumes to the end
Putting them to silence no more to contend

Then they will know of the G_d of Jacob
They will see Your steadfast love
That you alone will punish the evil
You O LORD are our shield

Awake my LORD, please come see
This enemy which has come against me
You're my refuge in the day of distress
I will sing O G_d, You are my fortress
