

TURN TO YESHUA

Yochana the Psalmist

I have an important story to sing;
Of my Yeshua, the coming King.

I think of those who do not yet know
Of the Messiah returning and how things will go

They must first hear in order to believe
To turn away from sin and to Yeshua cleave

For so many years have already gone by
Time is short, stars are aligning in the sky

Through signs and wonders He makes Himself known
Eyes and ears open, I can recount what He's shown

Angels, music and shofar sounds
The veil was lifted, heaven abounds

But only for those who choose to receive
Not all will see, not all will believe

The realms do converge when the prayers of the saints
Go up like incense, to the Father He waits

TURN TO YESHUA

Searching the earth for the righteous ones
Those who are righteous because of the Son.

Who have faith in Yeshua, not afraid to do
Working for the kingdom, so all can be made new

Yeshua proclaims the Kingdom of Heaven
He is salvation for those who would have Him

Israel His people belong to Him
He chooses His own, He can forgive their sins

O what a path to glory I've found
I wait for the day the trumpets will sound

The blasting, the shouting will loudly proclaim
"The King is coming, Yeshua is His name!"

Now is the time to make a decision
Cry out to Yeshua soon all will see Him

Be immersed in living water, washed free from sin
Start your new life and live only for Him

TURN TO YESHUA

Yochana the Psalmist

Read through the scriptures, to Him you should pray
Father through His Spirit will give you words to say

Yeshua brings punishment and rewards when He comes
To pay back all according to what they have done

The Alpha and the Omega is coming real soon
The First and the Last, He is the Bridegroom

Repent now, right from your heart
Obedience is the good works scripture talks about

For Yeshua was the most obedient Son
Doing Father's will, getting it done

True faith is an action, it must be seen
Following commandments is what this means

So please listen, those who be chosen
Turn to your G_D, return this moment

Salvation will only come through Yeshua
When he returns and makes all things new

TURN TO YESHUA

Yochana the Psalmist

Believe in Yeshua follow the Son

Believe in the scriptures and all G_D has done

For the words on those pages are your very life

They will bring you to holiness, make everything right

The Yom Teruah days in the past

Heralded Kings with the trumpet blasts

The return of the King Yeshua be soon

Could come about on Yom Teruah, the new moon

Repent from sin and follow His ways

If you want to be with Him in that new day!
