

The 4th Kingdom

Yochana the Psalmist

So Daniel's sight was correct – four kingdoms did emerge
After Nebuchadnezzar came the growing surge
Medes and the Persians – followed by the King of Greece
His kingdom split in four – but never came the peace

But when the four horns faltered – out of one there did arise
Northwest of the beautiful land – came the fourth – a big surprise
So enamored with Alexander – with Hellenism they be right at home
Emerged kingdom number four – comes the power of Rome

Consolidation and assimilation – what a wonderful plan
Even upon defeat – to the East the empire would stand
Regaining its composure – power shift back to the West
Fourth kingdom steadily grew – yes it stood the test

Oh king of Greece thy metal – iron be so hard
Sweep away gold and silver – knife cutting through the lard
Thy strength be in thy order – freedom to be sought
Independence within the empire – oh what have you wrought

Fourth kingdom stands on legs – in the west and in the east
Personal freedom and materials – being the weapons of the beast
Iron mixed with clay – empire of independence by the people
Self-determination rules – even under the steeple

The 4th Kingdom

Yochana the Psalmist

Fourth kingdom it be ruled - not by holy appointed power
Authority given by the people - to the favorite son of the hour
It's emblem oh so noble - yes it be so regal
Western mindset conquers all - it's emblem be great eagle

Senate and People of Rome

Out of Many – One

The 4th Kingdom

Yochana the Psalmist

Fourth kingdom it did spawn and grow throughout the ages

Please listen to the Psalmist - look at history's pages

Always under refinement - always fueled in fire

Always representing - the people and their desire

And riding on it's back - ever present for victory won

Corrupting and delighting - is mystery Babylon

Defiling all the holy - empire's religion be a personal feast

Religion be the whoredom - riding upon the beast

So rises one of fierceness - oh the great deal maker

One of sinister schemes - a mover and a shaker

Alas the deceit and cunning - prosper yes it will

Some will rise so high - but the many shall lose their fill

Thy arrogance be mighty - king of empire's perdition

Steam rolling over everyone - yes this be thy mission

Make the empire great - take it to it's height

Sacrifice oh people - for personal idolatry doth thou fight

On principle fourth kingdom stands

Personal liberty and freedom - can you see this man

Oh thou people thou clay thou dust

Be crushed by YESHUA - the rock thy must

The 4th Kingdom

Yochana the Psalmist

Prophets they have spoken - Yochana sounds the bell
See prophecy unfold - in this thou shall do well
Soon the beast shall turn - tired of the whore
Babylon be just a tool - one soon the beast shall gore

Oh feet of clay such fools - soon shall come the stumble
Idolatry soon be gone - thy self-determination shall crumble
Final rule shall enter - oh come YESHUA come
Oh how saints do wait - bring the final Kingdom

The Psalmist she does warn - praying all along
Come out of her my people - run from idolatrous song
Fourth kingdom be at peak - oh please don't be the least
Run from Babylon you saints - be ready for the beast
